My Life Story

Born and bred in the Dominican Republic, I moved in Bangladesh to pursue my dream of becoming a top model. Today, I work with professionals and creatives in the industry to manifest clients' concepts and ideas.

Visual Portfolio

Shots from a campaign for Bora Fleur, an online womenswear company

Bora Fleur believes in simplicity and luxury. The shoot played with contrasts and monochrome palettes to achieve the look they wanted.

They also believe that quality should be present in every stitch. Close-up product shots like these showed the drape, fabric, and stitching of their clothing.
